

Often educators take classes, go to workshops, and observe other teachers in order to help improve their craft. One other way is through evaluations and surveys. This applies to principals as well. Please consider taking a moment to provide me with constructive feedback by completing the survey at the following link. I appreciate you taking the time and effort to offer your insight. Thank you, Ms. B

Sadlier book company sponsor the Sr. Rose Anita McDonnell, IHM Award which is given to math teachers. Every year at the NCEA conference, Sadlier presents this national award to an amazing math teacher who is a leader in the building and an inspiration to the students. This year, the committee chose 4th grade Math and LA teacher, Jen Ruwe. We are so proud of Mrs. Ruwe and her hard work in the classroom. Mrs. Ruwe had a record 95% of her students score proficient or higher on the Math state AIR tests last year. She has successfully started blended learning in her classroom and daily reevaluates her students progress often planning lessons that are outside of the box.

Monday is the LAST Day to order your yearbook's. Don't be the only one without the OLL yearbook!

IOWA Tests are coming next week for grades 2-7! Please make sure your students eat a good breakfast and get a good night's sleep. The IOWAs help the teachers determine what skills they need to hone in order for our students to reach their full academic potential. These results will be on their permanent record and offer a lot of insight. Get sleep and Eat!

Don't forget registration is due March 28th. OLL is growing and we want you to be a member of the Tiger Family! If you have questions feel free to call Beth DiTullio at 347.2660 or Mary James at 922.0715. Don't wait...

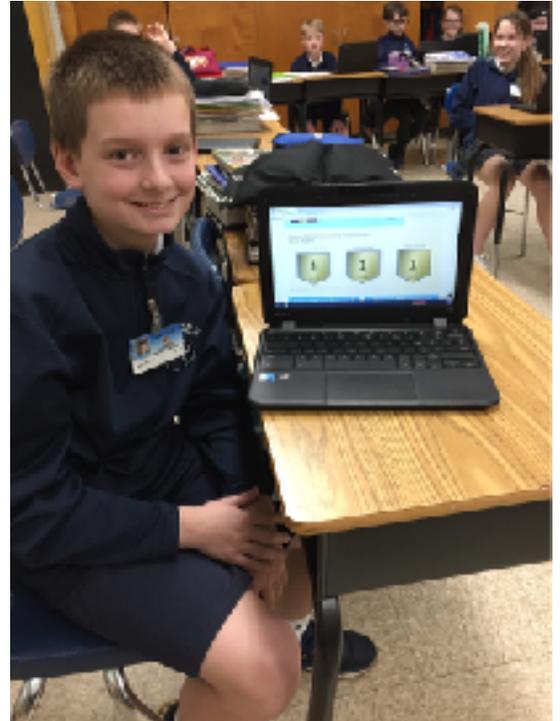

Please come out and cheer on our Boy's Basketball Teams in the City Tournament Finals!!!
