

Paw Prints...Thanksgiving Edition

A Message from Ms. B:

Hello Tiger Families!

I've never run a marathon but I imagine it would be just like the first trimester of school: running, running, running on empty, finish line in sight; Yikes, that's no finish line, it's a mirage, running more, needing oxygen, then finally the finish. Only to start the second trimester. Phew! I'm exhausted.

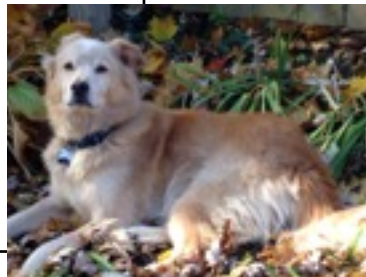

Thank goodness for breaks, right? Family time, rest, and refueling. The holiday season and the busyness of school (all of the running!) oftentimes becomes the focus and we lose sight of the finish line. Hopefully, we can take this time to refresh and remember those people and the gifts from God for which we are thankful. Without our God given talents and the essential people in our lives, we could never get to the finish line.

Some of the people in my life I am eternally grateful for are the faculty and staff of OLL. Education is a constantly changing and an increasingly difficult vocation. We are such a hard working group of educators and I am proud to work side by side with them everyday. I am thankful for our 300 students who make an effort to come to school on time, ready to learn and work hard with smiles (most of the time). I am grateful our parents/guardians, who believe in a Catholic education and eagerly support our efforts, decided to trust us and be active members of our community. And lastly, I am thankful for my family and friends, especially my husband and best friend, Mike and my two stepdaughters, Katie and Emily. Happy Thanksgiving, Tigers!

Rest, Relax, Rejuvenate,

-Ms. B
